

WITH OPEN ARMS

A San Francisco Initiative for Women

Partners: Homeless Prenatal Program, Iris Center, Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights, San Francisco Adult Probation Department, National Council on Crime & Delinquency, SF Clean City, and Walden House

SERVICES FOR WOMEN SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON

Drug Treatment • Mental Health Services • Trauma Recovery • Housing • Benefits Enrollment • Child Reunification • Child Behavioral Health Assistance • Job Training and Immediate Placement • Legal Assistance • Continuing Education Opportunities • Social Support • Family Strengthening & Empowerment

You may be eligible to participate in With Open Arms if:

- You are a woman in San Francisco County Jail who has been sentenced to State Prison, or
- You are currently incarcerated in a State Prison and will be paroling to San Francisco, or
- You are currently on parole in San Francisco

Working with You for Healthy Living Back Home in San Francisco

TO GET CONNECTED

CONTACT:

Sonia Crites
Walden House
1254 13th St Unit B, Treasure Island
San Francisco, CA 94130
Phone: (415) 402-0435
Fax: (415) 402-0413
Email: scrites@waldenhouse.org
They will meet you in jail or prison.

Sponsored by the San Francisco Department of Public Health and the Reentry Council

