

PROJECT WHAT!

a program of  communityworks

PAID JOBS FOR YOUTH

Has one of your parents ever been incarcerated?

Would you be willing to share your story of what's it's been like to have a parent incarcerated so you can help other youth who are going through the same thing?

Do you want a fun, challenging job where you can learn skills to help you get into college or just to improve yourself?

At Project WHAT! you will:

- Have fun and earn money
- Write a story about your life
- Get training in writing, public speaking & other skills
- Train teachers, social workers, and others adults so they can provide better support to youth

You might even get to travel to other cities to share your experiences at conferences. In the past, team members have gone to Washington D.C., Atlanta, Seattle, and Anaheim.

We are hiring now!

Applications are due 4/22/11.

In order to apply for a job with Project WHAT!:

- One or both of your parents MUST have been incarcerated at some point in your life
- You MUST be willing to speak publicly about it and share your experiences
- You must be between 15-24 years old

For more information, or to download the application, check our website at: www.communityworkswest.org or find us on facebook.com/CWProjectWHAT

You can also email Program Director Mailee Wang at cw.project.what@gmail.com or send a text to 510.914.8164.